DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

LINDA LIVOLSI,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:10-cr-578-APG-GWF

THIRD ORDER EXTENDING SELF-SURRENDER DATE FOR LINDA LIVOLSI

(Dkt. #231)

Defendant Linda Livolsi has filed another emergency motion to extend her self-surrender date based upon her apparent health condition and upcoming medical appointment. (Dkt. #231.) Twice previously I extended her self-surrender date. In order to allow the Government an opportunity to respond to Ms. Livolsi's latest I will grant a two-week extension of her self-surrender date, until noon on Friday, November 13, 2015. By noon on Monday, November 9, 2015, the Government shall file a brief explaining whether the Bureau of Prisons has sufficient medical staff and facilities to quickly assess and address Ms. Livolsi's health conditions when she self-surrenders. Ms. Livolsi is hereby warned that, absent extraordinary circumstances, this will be the last extension I grant. Therefore, she should accelerate all appointments and undertake all final preparations she feels she needs.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Linda Livolsi's emergency motion (Dkt. #231) is GRANTED IN PART. Her self-surrender date is hereby extended to noon on November 13, 2015.

Dated: October 29, 2015.
